

CHRIS YOUNG, GOLF COURSE ARCHITECT

Highland Pacific is Chris' first design, and judging from the quality of his work it will be the first of many signature designs. His extensive career includes projects with the top architects in Canada including Thomas McBroom, Graham Cooke and Doug Carrick, whom Chris considers his most influential mentors as an architect. Chris has worked on new courses and renovations in Oman, China, Ontario, Atlantic Canada, Alberta and across BC. Chris came to the Highland Pacific project with over 20 years of experience shaping difficult terrain into playable, challenging and beautiful golf holes that have unlimited risk and reward capacity.
